Cub Scouts Told Of Yuletide Magic

"The Magic of Christmas" was the theme of the skits presented at the meeting Tuesday night of Pahokee Cub Scout Pack 623, with Cubmaster W. O. (Bill) Moss in charge.

The Cubs of Den II conducted the flag ceremony, following the opening prayer given by Cubmaster Moss. The denners from each den led the group in singing "Cubs Are Fair."

Cubs receiving awards were Ernest Johnson, Jr., Bobcat pin; Juan and Jose Antuna, Jimmy Shirley, Jr., Mark Wetherington, Steve Stubblefield; Bengie Magrill and Steve Minei, all received Wolf badges; Steve Hawk, gold arrow, and Bear badge was awarded to Henry Wetherington.

Den III and Den IV presented skits for the entertainment of the Pack and visitors, and the Christmas tree and decorations for the stage were prepared and arranged in advance by Den I.

Den IV won the attendance banner and award plaque, and Den III was awarded the conduct banner.

Cubmaster Moss announced that the theme for January will be "Freedom Festival" and the Den Mother's meeting will be held Tuesday, January 15, and Pack night will be Tuesday, January 22.

Cubs of Den V closed the meeting by presenting bags of Christmas candy to all Cubbers, parents and visitors.

John Bolton Home From The Hospital

John Bolton, popular Pahokee pharmacist, is out of Everglades Memorial hospital in Pahokee and back on the job at Bolton's Rexall Drugs in Pahokee.

John was ordered to the hospital for a few days by his doctor and upon returning to his labors at the drug store had a lot of kind words to say about the hospital staff and doctors.

"I want to thank all of them," the pharmacist said, "for the wonderful care they gave me while there. All of the nurses, hospital officials, employees, and my doctor, Dr. Poteete of the Poteete-Hatton Clinic, gave me untiring attention. I'm deeply grateful for the splendid way they treated me in the hospital. I hope every one of them has a very Merry Christmas."

Children's Needs Are Mission Project

Administering to the needs of local school children was selected as the community mission project for the month by members of the Hannah Scoggan-Annie Jones Circle of the Canal Point Baptist WMU at the meeting held Thursday night, with Mrs. Jack Strayer as hostess.

A program on "Spiritual Life Development" was presented by Mrs. R. T. Smith, program chairman.

It was announced that the next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. J. S. Atkins in Pelican Lake, with Mrs. Edward Rodgers presenting the mission study.

Mrs. Woods Tells About Heart Fund

Mrs. Guy Wood of Belle Glade was guest speaker at the luncheon meeting of the Pahokee Lion's Club, Tuesday last. Mrs. Wood, field representative of the Palm Beach County Heart Association, who was introduced by the president, Dr. E. C. Johnson, spoke on the work of the Association and showed a film on a particular heart disease, atherosclerosis. Dr. Johnson also answered questions asked by members concerning heart diseases.

Guests included George Young and Walter Hooker of Belle Glade; Bob Heon, Palm Beach; John Henry Logan, Clearwater, and L. R. Gilbert. Miss Verlon Jones was the guest of student member, R. O. Lampi; Jr. David Sullivan, president of the D.C.T. Club, was the guest of John Howell, coordinator of the D. C. T. at Pahokee High School.

Annual Concert At Pahokee Methodist

The annual Christmas concert will be presented at the Pahokee First Methodist Church on Sunday, December 23, at 7:45 p. m., under the direction of Mrs. R. Lester Hatton. The organist will be Miss Dottie Lair and pianist will be Mrs. Barbara Branch and Miss Jann Plumer.

CENTRE COLLEGE VISITOR
Roger Hatton arrived Wednesday from Danville, Kentucky, where he is a freshman at Centre College, to spend the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Hatton, 1376 East Main Street.

Judge Tyson Tells Of County Service

Judge J. L. Tyson was guest speaker at the luncheon meeting of the Pahokee Lion's Club, Tuesday, with the president, Kyle Scott, presiding. Introduced by James H. Wilkinson, Jr., Judge Tyson, who is judge of the Magistrate Court of District One and has his offices in the Palm Beach County Glades Office Building, located between Pahokee and Belle Glade, spoke on the amazing growth of the area and named some of the things being done to meet these needs.

He catalogued the offices at the Glades Office Building and enumerated some of the services offered there for the convenience of Glades residents. Among the Palm Beach County departments having offices there, in addition to the Magistrate Court, are the Palm Beach County Judge which offers marriage, drivers, hunting and fishing licenses; Small Claims Court, County Agricultural Agent, County Registrar, Juvenile and Domestic Relations, Zoning Board (a recent addition), Tax Collector, County Welfare, a Circuit Court clerk, and the sub-station of the Sheriff's Office.

Guests attending were Joe Spence of Miami, Harry C. Panos of West Palm Beach and Bob Adams. Miss Tina Maxwell was the guest of student member, Mike Watkins.

North Florida Draws Christmas Visitors

Mayor and Mrs. Duncan Padgett, accompanied by Mrs. Ida Larimore, city librarian, will leave Saturday morning to spend the Christmas weekend in north Florida. Mrs. Larimore will visit her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Larimore in Tallahassee, and Mayor and Mrs. Padgett will visit their son and daughter-in-law, Rev. and Mrs. Donald Padgett and family in Chattahoochee.

"Magic Star" Topic Of Circle Devotional

The "Magic Star of Christmas" was the topic of the devotional given by Mrs. M. P. Holman at the meeting of the Simon-Lair Circle of the Pahokee Woman's Society of Christian Service Monday afternoon. Mrs. Holman also presented the program, "Sharing at Christmas."

Business was dispensed with due to the illness of the chairman, Mrs. Frank Friend.

Christmas carols were sung by the group accompanied at the piano by Mrs. A. F. Blakey.

Special Christmas remembrances were planned for Mrs. Marjorie Lair and R. J. Simonson, since the Circle was named for the wife of Mr. Simonson and for Mrs. Lair.

Refreshments were served during the social hour by Mrs. Lon Wilson, Mrs. Arch Blakey and Mrs. M. P. Holman.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. L. W. Armstrong, with Mrs. C. A. Major presenting the program.

Gifts For Children By Schroder Circle

Gifts for children were brought to the meeting of the Vena Mae Schroder Circle of the Pahokee WSCS which met at the home of Mrs. J. T. Boynton, Monday morning, with vice-chairman, Mrs. Robert Hatton, presiding. The gifts were for the Christmas party at the Pahokee Housing project which is being planned by Mrs. John Hatton.

Mrs. Robert Hatton presented the program, "Sharing at Christmas," and carols were sung by the group.

Volunteers were called for, to assist the Salvation Army in giving out toys at the City Hall, Friday.

Bridal Shower For Carley Bracewell

The home of Mrs. Thor Hatton was the scene of a bridal shower, Tuesday evening in compliment to Miss Carley Jean Bracewell, bride-elect of William M. Mackey, whose wedding will take place Saturday, December 29, at 7 p. m. at the Canal Point Baptist Church.

In the receiving line with the honoree were her mother and grandmother, Mrs. E. F. Bracewell and Mrs. S. F. Lowery; Mrs. R. B. Mackey, mother of the bridegroom-elect, and Mrs. Hatton, all wearing corsages presented to them by the hostesses. Miss Bracewell's corsage was of white carnations, net and white satin ribbon.

A holiday motif of red and white was used in decorating, and the table arrangement featured beautiful poinsettias. Miss Myra Jones and Mrs. Lewis Buckner served punch from the crystal bowl and Mrs. Gary Clark had charge of the guest book.

Among the lovely gifts received by the bride-elect was a Sunbeam electric skillet from the hostesses, who in addition to Mrs. Hatton, were Mrs. Lewis Buckner, Mrs. Lillian Jones, Mrs. Gary Clark, Miss Myra Jones and Mrs. Olga Chefield.

Miss Patsy Keene will arrive today from Tallahassee, where she is a student at Florida State University, to spend the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leland Keene.

And hope this Christmas is one
you can cherish forever.

Hammond Wedding On Sunday Dec. 16

Miss Eva Lynette Hammond, daughter of Mrs. Mary J. Hammond of Pahokee, and the late James V. Hammond, became the bride of John T. Thompson, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Thompson, Sr. of Belle Glade, on Sunday, Dec. 16.

The marriage took place at the First Baptist Church in Pahokee before an altar decorated with baskets of white gladioli and green palms. The ceremony was performed at 4:00 by Rev. Guthrie Colvard. Family pews were marked with bows of white satin ribbon.

Traditional wedding selections were played by Mrs. Shepard Pitts, Jr., organist, who accompanied Miss Anita Cowart, soloist, when she sang, "Entreat Me Not to Leave Thee," "Because," and "Wedding Prayer".

The bride, given in marriage by her brother-in-law John C. Hatton, wore a floor length gown of ivory peau-de-soie with fitted bodice overlaid with Alencon lace forming flowers and leaves delicately embroidered with seed pearls and crystals. The skirt, slightly belled in front, had lace side panels, with the soft gathers in the back ending in a chapel train. A large back bow was centered with a white fabric rose. She wore white elbow length gloves and white peau-de-soie shoes. Her fingertip veil of illusion was attached to a jeweled tiara of seed pearls and crystals. Her bouquet of white orchids was accented with silver and velvet leaves.

Mrs. John C. Hatton, sister of the bride and matron of honor, wore a gown of pink silk-satin with three quarter length sleeves and rounded neckline. She carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

The bridesmaids, Miss Jeanine Mood of Pahokee, Miss Rita Faye Eaves of Natchez, Miss; Mrs. John T. Starling of Tallahassee and Mrs. Alfred Murphy of St. Petersburg; and the junior bridesmaid; Miss Lynn Hatton, niece of the bride, all wore gowns identical to that of the matron of honor but were in American Beauty rose with matching shoes. Lois Zaccagnino was flower girl and Curtis A. Thompson III, nephew of the groom, was the ring bearer.

Mrs. Hammond chose for her daughter's wedding a dress, of turquoise silk with matching accessories, and a white orchid corsage completed her costume.

The bridegroom's mother wore a blue silk brocade with a white orchid corsage.

Curtis A. Thompson, Jr. of Belle Glade was best man for his brother, and ushers were Ronald Cameron, James Chamblee, Ronald Marlowe and Jimmy Bryan.

Mrs. R. V. Allison of Belle Glade assisted at the reception which was held in the social hall of the church immediately following the ceremony.

After January 1, the couple will make their home in Belle Glade where he is associated with the Belle Produce Company.

Shirley Circle Has Christmas Meet

Minature Christmas trees were constructed of toothpicks and plastic foam as gifts for shut-ins at the meeting, Monday night, of the Gertrude Shirley Circle of the Pahokee WSCS held at the home of Mrs. J. L. Reeves, with Mrs. Al Lavender as co-hostess.

Mrs. Evelyn Lair presented a Christmas program, and Mrs. Jack Spencer, circle chairman, was in charge of the meeting.

It was announced that the January meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Frances Dunson on East Main Street.

Miriam Circle In Christmas Meeting

Goblets of Christmas goodies for shut-ins were prepared by members of the Miriam Circle of the Pahokee WSCS at the meeting held in the social hall of the church, Monday night. The decorated goblets contained candy, cookies and fruit. Mrs. Ernest Maxwell also made beautiful table arrangements for the shut-ins. Mrs. E. D. Sims, circle chairman, presided over the meeting.

The hostesses, Mrs. E. O. Winch and Mrs. Ernest Maxwell, served refreshments to the members and three guests, Mrs. R. F. Hurt, Mrs. Thomas O'Steen and Mrs. Barbara Hatch.

HOLIDAY GUESTS

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Latham of Canal Point will have as their holiday guests, their son, SP-4 Homer Latham, who will arrive today from Fort Benning, Ga., and their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Latham, Jr. and daughter, Sheila, of Cocoa, who are also expected to arrive today.

CHRISTMAS VACATION

Mrs. W. M. DuBose, sixth grade teacher in the Pahokee Schools, left yesterday for Jacksonville where she will join her husband, and they will visit his relatives in Columbus, Georgia, and her relatives in Goodwater and Sylacauga, Alabama, during the holidays.

HOME FROM TALLAHASSEE

Miss Rebecca Grimes who arrived Thursday from Tallahassee where she is a student at Florida State University, is spending the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Grimes, and her grandmother, Mrs. C. A. Shive.

CHRISTMAS TREES

Tradition has it that Christmas trees were first used in Germany when Christian missionaries chopped down trees worshiped by the pagans and made a decorated tree part of the Christian celebration. Earliest records of the use of Christmas trees in the United States indicate that German immigrants, who wanted to preserve the type of Christmas they had in Germany, were responsible for popularizing the use of trees in this country.
